United States District Judge

Re: United States v. Deejay White,
19 Cr. 536 (PKC)

Dear Judge Castel:

We represent Deejay White in connection with the above-captioned matter. As the Court is aware, Mr. White was scheduled to appear before Your Honor yesterday but was not produced from the Essex facility in New Jersey.

I spoke to Mr. White yesterday afternoon and again this morning. According to Mr. White, he was in the process of preparing to come to Court early yesterday morning when a misunderstanding among the prisoner production team caused them to leave without him. Mr. White has relayed that – to the extent there was concern about this claim – the video footage from cameras at the Essex facility should corroborate his account.

In any event, Mr. White asked me to explain that he was looking forward to coming to Court yesterday and that he would not have refused to come. Although he believes he did nothing wrong in connection with the production procedure, he asked me to apologize to the Court and all parties for the inconvenience this has caused.
